BALTIMORE'S LONGEST RUNNING NEIGHBORHOOD FESTIVAL

FELL'S POINT FUN FESTIVAL™

The Fell's Point Fun Festival began as a small neighborhood festival 49 years ago as a way to raise money to fight against a project that would have linked I-83 and I-95 by building an elevated highway along the north shore of the Baltimore Harbor.

This project would have entailed extensive demolition within Fell's Point, and the highway would have cut off the remainder of the neighborhood from the waterfront. Over the years, The Preservation Society has worked to maintain the 18th and 19th century character of the historic structures within Fell's Point.

The Society operates without cost to the city of Baltimore and it currently maintains many of the buildings as well as running historic tours of Fell's Point. The Fell's Point Fun Festival has grown dramatically over the years and continues to have a large impact in maintaining the historic integrity of Fell's Point for businesses, residents and visitors.

WHO ATTENDS:

Hundreds of thousands of people attend the Fell's Point Festival each year, varying in age from families with children to adults young at heart. Participants travel from all over the state of Maryland and beyond to enjoy live music, beer and wine gardens, and to shop unique arts, crafts, photography and antiques that you can only find at a festival of this size!

WHY IT'S FUN:
